On the first day of the feast of unleavened bread,
 when it was the custom to sacrifice the Passover lamb,
 the disciples came to Jesus and asked:
 "where do you want us to prepare to eat the Passover?"

He answered: "Go into the city.
 You will meet a man with a pitcher of water; follow him.
 He will show you a large upper room ;
 there make ready the Passover meal."

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went, and making his way to Jerusalem. Some Pharisees came to him and said, "Leave this area; Herod wants to kill you."

Jesus replied, "Tell that fox, while ' today and tomorrow I confront demons and heal the sick; on the third day my mission will be accomplished."

For now, I must continue on; it is impossible that a prophet should die outside Jerusalem."
